

Elements of the Chamberlain Access Solutions corporate brand include the company name and its logo, as well as the products and services we offer. The careful protection of the brand is in our mutual best interest and since the elements of our brand are registered trademarks, there are legal reasons to use the logo and company name consistently. The same is true for our product brands. Electronic images of logos are available in various formats. Photographs of products are also available upon request.

Using the logo

When you use elements of the Chamberlain Access Solutions brand:

- ◆ Do not re-draw, re-position, or modify the logo, or its elements.
- ◆ Do not distort the logo or place text over it.
- ◆ Avoid backgrounds that interfere with the logo's legibility.
- ◆ Never simulate the logo with colored text or boxes.
